

“Silence and Evil”

Steven DeLay
Wake Forest University

Abstract. What is the essential connection, if any, between silence and evil? Why, almost without fail, does the one caught in wrongdoing fall silent? This paper explores the intentionalities of such silence, paying attention to the silence of the liar, the conspirator, the mocker, and the hypocrite.